

Agreement Between Copyright Holder and JNSPG to Publish Original Material

The JNSPG allows the copyright holder to retain copyright of original material, limited to artwork, videos, and photographs of prepared cadaveric specimens. With this agreement, the copyright owner grants the JNSPG permission to publish this material as specified below.

Manuscript No.: _____

For the Copyright Holder

This form applies to the following figures/videos specified below by number and/or as a journal cover submission.

Figure(s) (e.g., Fig. 1) _____

Video(s) (e.g., Video 1) _____

Figure(s) for journal cover consideration (e.g., Fig. 1; separate cover art) _____

If the above-referenced manuscript is accepted for publication, my signature below confirms that I grant the American Association of Neurosurgeons and JNSPG nonexclusive rights to display, copy, publish, distribute, license, store, and transmit the specified material in print and electronically worldwide and for all time, including permission to use the specified material in press releases, marketing materials, and social media. Any and all other rights to the figure(s)/ video(s) specified above remain with the copyright holder.

The copyright owner is the creator of the material unless that person has reassigned copyright to someone else such as an author.

I am the copyright holder.

I am signing on behalf of the copyright holder. I have the legal right to grant this authorization with respect to the specified figure(s)/video(s).

Name of copyright holder (e.g., institution, department) _____

Name of Copyright Holder or Person Authorized to Sign

Signature

Date